Lancaster Texas State Auxiliary Museum Advisory Board

Lancaster, TX – Do you have a passion for history, an ability to plan for the future, and an enthusiastic interest in educating the community? Do you want to be more involved at a local level where you see the results of your time and efforts? The City of Lancaster is currently accepting applications from residents interested in serving on the Lancaster Texas State Auxiliary Museum Advisory Board. The Board will consist of five regular members serving staggered two year terms and one alternate. The Advisory Board will make recommendations regarding the acquisition of exhibits, travel exhibits, fundraising, and business practices.

If you are interested, please contact the City Secretary's office at (972) 218-1310 or visit www.lancaster-tx.com. Learn about Lancaster's past, invest in Lancaster's future... submit your application today!
