Lancaster Masonic Lodge Presents the Community Builders Award to Lancaster's Police Chief

Lancaster, TX – On Monday, August 10, 2015 Lancaster's Chief of Police, Cheryl Wilson was presented the Community Builders Award by the Lancaster Masonic Lodge. Clifford Holland, Master of the Lancaster Masonic Lodge #160 of the State of Texas explained, "The Community Builders Award is presented to individuals who have given themselves, their time, hard work and dedication to building a better community."

Chief Wilson was appointed in October 2013 as Chief of Police for the City of Lancaster, Police Department. She exemplifies passion and commitment to serve the community and the department with P.R.I.D.E. Chief Wilson has implemented many new programs within the community to improve police and citizen relationships including: Interaction with Law Enforcement, Conversation with the Chief, Foot Patrol, Bike Patrol, Victim Relief Ministries and Neighbors Keepers, Lancaster Police and Outreach Community (LPOC), and several new community police technologies. In addition, the Lancaster Police Department held their first ever Junior Police Academy.

"Chief Wilson is an asset to this community," explained Lancaster's City Manager, Opal Mauldin-Robertson. "She has continued to exceed the organizations goals and objectives with her leadership and dedication to serve."

Chief Wilson continues to provide the citizens of Lancaster the highest degree of protection and public safety available. While ensuring a high community involvement, she will continue building the respect and trust necessary for the Lancaster Police Department to continue serving with productivity, resourcefulness, integrity, dedication and excellence.
