

City of Lancaster City Council Members Recognized by the Texas Municipal League Institute Program

Lancaster, TX – The Texas Municipal League Institute (TMLI), sponsored by the Texas Association of Mayors, Councilmembers and Commissioners (TAMCC) and Texas Municipal League (TMLI) recognizes elected city officials for time spent on enhancing their knowledge of city government and sharpening their leadership skills via a variety of educational opportunities. Acknowledgement for completing continuing education units (CEUs) within a calendar year begins with a certificate of recognition (42 or more CEUs) and increases to the prestigious CMO designation (72 or more CEUs). Training includes but is not limited to sessions on topics such as leadership, open government, parliamentary procedure, financial responsibilities, ethics, economic development, and media relations.

City of Lancaster District 4 Councilmember Derrick Robinson has earned the Certificate of Recognition. Mayor - Clyde C. Hairston, District 1 - Councilmember Carol Strain Burk, Deputy Mayor Pro Tem - Stanley Jaglowski, District 5 - Council Member Racheal Hill, and District 6 - Councilmember Nina Morris each earned the esteemed Certified Municipal Official designation. The councilmembers will be recognized Wednesday, February 27 at the TML-TAMCC Elected Officials' Conference in San Marcos, Texas.

The Texas Municipal League is a voluntary association of 1,157 Texas cities. The City of Lancaster is a member of the Texas Municipal League.
